

Ecology

KERRS CREEK WIND FARM

RES has minimised ecological impacts by focusing development on areas of lower ecological value and avoiding existing areas of remnant vegetation wherever possible.

Ecological values of the site have been determined through a program of ecological surveys across the site which have included:

- Bird and bat utilisation surveys
- Remote visual and audio recording and call playbacks
- Threatened species habitat assessment
- Species observation, spotlighting and transect surveys.

